Ladies Day at Gymkhana

Ms. Go: For Ladies' Day on Saturday, June 25, we had warm weather. Yet the breeze and shade kept us cool. Our track design master extraordinaire, Don Klein, configured a circuitous course that seemed to thrill and challenge the 12 drivers. Since we had only three ladies, the men worked the course so all six runs were completed all in a row.

Mr. Whoa: Nancy Bacon drove a blue Bugeye A-H Sprite like she stole it. Every time, I mean every time, she got a little bit faster. The two other women drove Miatas. Kimberly Szaz in her reddish copper beauty and C.J. Savage drove her white 1997 Mazda. New driver, Brandon Cox, grandson of Jerry Cox, learned a bunch in his 2006 Black Miata 6. Jeff Porada and Jake Jacobs took turns blasting around the two lots in the same Bugeye that Nancy drove. Ellery Savage drove his Miata very well. His helmet was very interesting to look at.

Ms. Go: Most drivers trimmed their times after each successive run. Mike Szaz delivered the most consistent runs of the day as well as maneuvering his distinctive copper red Miata. Gene Allison in his blue and yellow Mini won the FTOD with a 57.9second elapsed time. Brian Tull ran his white 2013 Mazda MZ3 like a pro. He was definitely the most improved male driver shaving 4 seconds from his first serious effort to his best run. The other cars were the red Miatas of Andy MacKay and a 1993 one for Don Kelly. Special thanks to OVAHC members working the course for the ladies.

Mr. Whoa: Despite the local fire department stopping by to tell us they had 6 trainees coming by, the undaunted OVAHC team adapted and prevailed to present yet another exciting event for participants. Before they could all arrive, the sirens blared, the lights flashed, and the fire truck and ambulance, and supervisor's truck, split out of there on a real fire run directly from the south lot.

Ms. Go: We kept running and were gone before they came back. Our team members assisting Don Klein included: Nancy Bacon, Jeff Porada, Skip Jackson, Bob and Pat Duffey, Dale Ballinger, Gayle and Cindy Loos, Jake Jacobs, Tom Hall, Jerry Cox, Scott Brown, and Gene Allison.

Mr. Whoa: Hazel Klein delivered the pretty roses for the ladies, and the leftovers went to hubbies to take home to their brides. Come join the fun! We'll be back for only two more. Mark your calendar for Saturday, July 23, and then the last one for 2016 is Saturday, September 3. Same time, same place.
