July meeting minutes

August 2018

We had thirty members attend the Monday, July 30 meeting at the home of Charlene and Jerry Cox near Batavia. President John Jacobs thanked them for hosting. (applause) Vice Presidents John and Lauren Wallace, AA Skip, and President Jeff were away. Historian John Parrott, President John, Secretary Dale, Business Manager Jake, and editor Mary Ann Grabow all had no report.

Treasurer Cindy gave her report. Two more September Roundup registrations came in. All club grill badges are sold, so the last ones' deposit was made. She paid Porada / Bacon for the June meeting. So, debts paid, dues deposited, and our balance is good.

Membership Sandy reported that new member Daniel Durbin from Lebanon had joined. President John also had 7 year old Roman Neumann introduce himself. He said he belongs (grandson) to Mark & Tammy Neumann. Welcome to the club! (applause)

Tech Director Tim reported we had several sessions. Dana Owens 1958 100-6 was successfully shown at the French Lick Conclave car show and it got the "Diamond in the Rough" award as well as many interesting looks and comments. Dana and hubby Billy were there to hear advice and to share stories. Tim and Bobbi ferried it back and forth on his trailer. It now resides at D.E.B. Vintage Motorworks with Jeff Porada in charge of its immediate future. Chris and Donna Wolfer ran their square-body Sprite at the Salem Speedway and they were happy with all the tech team's efforts. Denny Lindauer's Sprite still needs more tweaking. John Wallace had some tech team attention at Conclave. His 100 was being troublesome. Saturday 8/11 the tech team will work in his garage. To request Healey help via phone or email Tim at Hugcrv@fuse.net because we want these Healeys back on the road!

Activity Activator Skip was away but asked Dale to do his part. In a false gravely voice and with a fancy F-1 racing shirt and floppy hat, he announced that the caravan to Southeast Classic in Charleston is planned as a two day drive each way. Skip also has a route to Deadwood, SD started for 2019 Conclave. The shirt and more like it as well as a Bridgestone racing jacket were donated by member, Don Butler. They will be available at the September Roundup silent auction. This Saturday, 8/4 is Dayton British Car Day. Caravan info was emailed.

Sunday, August 5 is the next OVAHC drivers' training session at Live Oaks. Saturday, August 11 Skip is signed up for the Porsche Club autocross at Kentucky Speedway for $65. You can also get on the NASCAR oval race track. Saturday, August 18 is the car show / corn roast / bagpipe event at Mound Park for only $10 with you bringing a dish or dessert. Sunday, August 26 Kurt Niemeyer is leading a Bellefontaine, Ohio hill climb route. Meet at Young's Jersey Dairy for breakfast between 8 and 9 AM. RSVP with Kurt by email ktrg65@gmail.com quickly. If you have any event questions, contact Skip.

Delegate Don had a Conclave report, 209 registrations and about 145 cars. Jake informed Pat Duffey that she was officially the fastest female driver there, and Jim Frakes will make sure it is publicized in the Healey Marque. (applause) Don said a 2022 Conclave is being planned for Park City, Utah. None for 2020, nor 2021. The DMH Scholarship Award is looking for funds. The AHCA is changing the dates for dues renewals for 2019. They will be mailed in mid-October and the deadline will be moved back into 2018. Don asked for workers at 9:00 AM for next Sunday's drivers' training at Live Oaks.

Old business: Chairman Dale gave a September Roundup fifty day countdown update. He asked everyone to register because we only have sixteen total so far. We will need volunteers to pull it off. Get your OVAHC $99 Doubletree rooms fast. Hollywood Casino rooms are $220 per night.

New business: Tim asked about buying newer helmets. Discussion was to wait and see if we really need some. Dale read the thank you letter sent to our club, for our support concerning the recent tragic loss of Ben Moore and Tadd Roberts baby.

President John thanked our hosts, Charlene and Jerry Cox. (applause) The next meeting is the Wolfer picnic on Saturday, August 25 near Alexandria, Ky. Arrive at 1:00 PM, meeting at 2, picnic follows. (Secretary note: This is the meeting we nominate officers and volunteer for next year's meeting. If you want to ask for a 2019 meeting and cannot attend, email me at dlb55ah@cs.com. I will present your request.)

Submitted by OVAHC Secretary,
